

People who meet Renee say she is one of the most transparent and encouraging people they have ever met, which makes her heart smile. One of her goals in life is to make her family and those around her feel seen, valued and unconditionally loved by God.

Renee Swope is a wife, mom, national speaker, international best-selling author and a familiar voice to women around the world as former co-host of Proverbs 31 Ministries' radio for over 10 years.

Through powerful stories of struggle and hard-won strength, God has used Renee Swope's words to bring life-changing hope and everyday wisdom to hundreds of thousands of people through her spoken and written words for over 20 years.

If you are ready to laugh, lean in to God's love and leave empowered with courage and equipped with Biblical truth, join us for our upcoming event with Renee Swope!

Renee and her husband, J.J. have been married for over 26 years and live in North Carolina. They have two married sons in their 20s and an 11-year-old daughter, plus two adorable dachshunds who think they're human.
